TENTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL
KERALA HISTORY CONFERENCE
November 27–29, 2026
PG Department of History, Government College, Malappuram

CIRCULAR

We are pleased to inform you that the Executive Committee of the Kerala History Conference has decided to hold its 10th Annual International Conference on November 27, 28, and 29, 2026, at the Department of History, Government College, Malappuram. Your esteemed presence and valuable academic and administrative insights would greatly enrich the deliberations and contribute meaningfully to the event's intellectual vibrancy. We would be truly delighted to have you with us for this significant scholarly gathering.

The Kerala History Conference, a common academic forum for methodical study and comprehensive analysis of Kerala history, has held its annual conferences for the past nine years. The conference brings together academicians, research scholars, and students from across the country and abroad on a common platform to share research findings and debate recent trends and concerns in Kerala history, historiography, and historical methods.

Government College, Malappuram is one of the prestigious institutions in Malappuram District, established in 1972 as the premier government-sector arts and science college in the district. The college is affiliated with the University of Calicut and offers 11 UG programmes and 8 PG programmes. Central to the college's vision is uplifting educationally and socially backward areas by spreading the light of quality education.

The Department of History is one of the major departments at Govt. College Malappuram. The Department was established in 1973 with a Pre-Degree Course. Since 1998, the Department has offered BA in History, and in 2018 it was upgraded to a Post-Graduate Department. The Department of History is pleased to host the Xth international session of the Kerala History Conference, and we cordially welcome everyone to this intellectual platform to share their ideas.
